Deutsche Bank Cycling Tour, 05 October 2008

'La Petite Reine' or The 'little queen' was honored by Deutsche Bank yet again this year with no less than 1100 participants who cycled from Mahebourg to Mont Choisy. Blast handled the media relations

Conducting of Workshops in Barcelona for the World Conservation [IUCN] Conference 06th - 10th October 2009

For a whole week, 8,000 top-notch scientists and conservationists met in Barcelona to devise ways to protect our planet from climate change. Meeting high profile speakers such as Prince of Asturias or Nicolas Hulot of Nicolas Hulot Foundation or Mohammad Yunus of Grameen Bank is a feast in itself. Getting to facilitate sessions with these people, under the guidance of Gillian Martin-Mehers, head of Learning at IUCN, is the cherry on the cake and indeed a rich experience.

Gillian Martin-Mehers commenting on the pool of global facilitators working at the congress forums: 'The Congress simply would not have been the same without you..... I really valued your energy, ideas, perspective, support and patience..'

BDO DCDM Partnering with ACCA 11 October 2008

After linking to the University of Mauritius, BDO DCDM pursues its partnership program with no less than ACCA. The CEO of BDO DCDM, besides being darn handsome in his gown, delivered a great speech in front of his eclectic audience...

Anglo Mauritius Flacq Divali Bash 25 October 2008

How better to celebrate the festival of light than to honor those who are at the helm of an enterprise?
 Anglo Mauritius did just that by throwing a mega party for its staff and guests at its Flacq branch.
 A blood donation was also organised in collaboration with the Mauritian Blood Donors Association.

Work hard, play hard, the Blast way!!

That's one of our mottos and we lived by it during the crazy month of October.
 So much on our plate, literally and in a figurative sense.
 We had blasting projects, birthday bashes and some wonderful parties
 [Thai cuisine thanks to Lekha, briyani party thanks to Aisha's mum and Pineapple Splendor! thanks to David]
