

ANGLO MAURITIUS SEMINAR ON RETIREMENT, 22nd APRIL 2009

The Anglo-Mauritius Assurance Society Ltd and its subsidiary Pension Consultant and Administrators Limited organized a half-day seminar on the 22 April 2009 on the impact of the increase in retirement age. Blast organized the event and handled the media relations

Robert Gallet, Senior Manager: "It was the first time that Anglo-Mauritius has organized such an event and we have been extremely glad to note that everything went well. Our clients were quite happy of the way the seminar was planned and organized. The Clients' seminar also received very good media coverage and we hope that this has been resourceful to the readers."

MAURITIUS GLASS GALLERY & HELPING HANDS FOUNDATION
DONATES Rs 400,000 TO CHILDREN'S WELFARE

The Mauritius Glass Gallery and its Helping Hands Foundation invited their partners for a cheque donation ceremony on the 30th of April. Rs 200,000 each was given to two associations namely the Soroptmist Association and the Shelter for Children in Distress Trust Fund. Xavier –Luc Duval, Minister of Tourism was also present at the event.

Vinay Guddye, General Manager of MGG: “Preparing for an event requires good logistical co-ordination. Something that can be achieved by many. More often, the success of an event lies beyond the actual event, where there is a need to reach the targeted audience. Blast Communication is the effective and efficient mean to pass on the significance of the event to the appropriate audience. This is what they have achieved through their professional organisation of the Helping Hands Charitable function at the Hands of Fame, Phoenix”.

Team-Building with Grays Logistics Team at Casela, 12th JUNE 2009

After a strenuous but fun journey at Casela, the Logistics team felt on top of the world.

Veronique Maujean, Team Leader, Logistics Team: "This activity was the final step in our team-building endeavour to make the Logistics team stronger. Today, we communicate and bond better and our team can only progress from now on. Personally, I have shed all my inhibitions and feel more at ease communicating with everyone..."

Deutsche Bank: Staff Celebration Event at Sugar Beach, 13th June 2009

The 13th of June 2009 will remain memorable for Deutsche Bank's team who accomplished their raft-building mission amidst hilarious situations. Some were "good", none were "bad", but there certainly were a few "truants"...

Happy Birthday to the Boss!

Benjamin Franklin said At twenty years of age, the will reigns; at thirty, the wit; and at forty, the judgement.

Growing old is a mandatory, growing up is optional, Happy Birthday Boss!
